The Club

Since opening in 2019, Gracy's Arts and Supper Club has become Malta's destination of choice. Beloved of Hollywood's A-list for the privacy it affords, global corporations for its seamless business integrations and international travellers for its 'home from home' luxury.

Situated in the heart of historic Valletta and housed within a grade-1 listed palazzo built for the Order of the Knights Hospitaller, owner Gregory Nasmyth has spent five years restoring the building to its former Baroque glory.

Comprising a triple height atrium, the ground floor restaurant remains open to the public, whilst up above, the Piano Nobile, literally the noble floor, remains the sole preserve of members. Here, recessed from the balustraded balcony, you will find the the heart of the Club, the magnificent Long Bar with its fin de siècle grandeur, the colonial-style Snooker Room, and Board Room, each furnished to the most exacting standards and befitting those who demand the utmost in service.

Finally, the crowning glory, Gracy's Roof Gardens, affording seasonal dining beneath the stars and overlooking views of Valletta's historic skyline.

Interiors

The interior, designed by the club's Creative Director Samantha Rowe-Beddoe, combines a rich and sophisticated palette of vibrant wall coverings, upholstery, handmade chairs and sofas and beautiful bespoke bars.

From its sumptuous powder rooms to its bespoke booths, its stunning roof top VIP area (offering the best views of Valletta) and a huge internal glass window that allows diners to see into the kitchen run by Executive Chef Tom Peters, the club is architecturally stunning.

No expense has been spared sourcing fixtures and fittings, lighting and décor from Europe's finest design houses including Rubelli, GP & J Baker, Pierre Frey, Vaughan, William Yeoward, Porta Romana and Andrew Martin.

A home away from home, members can work, play and relax in the height of comfort with like-minded individuals. The exclusive list of founder members were personally invited to create a balanced mix of men and women of all ages. Expect to rub shoulders with an international crowd from the worlds of business, politics, art and entertainment.

Private Members' Club

Gracy's private members' club, the Arts & Supper Club, offers guests a unique and memorable location in which to work or relax. The club occupies the upper floors of the Palazzo Verdellin, comprising the fin de siècle Long Bar, a spacious first floor clubroom and bar, whose furnishings recall the golden age of luxury travel. With sweeping views across Valletta's central square our members can meet for coffee or cocktails and our lunch and dinner menus are also available here.

With a nod to the building's sporting heritage there is the Snooker Room boasting a full-size table left behind, but not forgotten, as the sun finally set on the British Empire – as well as the delightfully named Ping-Pong Room with a bespoke table that doubles up seamlessly for private dining or board meetings depending on our members' requirements.

A third salon, the Ladies Meeting Room, plays host to smaller events and our library is filled with complimentary international magazines and offers office facilities. Intimate tables on the Piano Nobile's balustraded balcony double up as chess and backgammon boards.

Gastronomy

Under the management of Danny Drinkwater and his international hospitality team, Gracy's restaurant is open to both members and the public. The restaurant offers a unique modern menu which draws on the seasonality and locality of the island's food culture while adding a delicate twist of refinement reflecting Executive Chef Tom Peters' culinary influences. Serving both lunch and dinner in the ground floor Grand Salon during the winter months, in the summer the kitchen brigade and service team move to the beautiful roof top garden terrace where the menu focuses on exquisite, crudo share plates, signature dishes and grilled meat, fish and veg from the Green Egg BBQ.

The wine cellar is curated by our expert sommelier Tuva Villa and is fully stocked with a large range of rare and exclusive wine vintages and Champagnes, from white wines to Super Tuscans and a large selection of Bordeaux – as well as the best of the local Maltese vineyards. Embark on a journey into the world of wine, guided by our experts.

Private Events

Gracy's Arts & Supper Club is both rich in history and glamour. The Club is one of the preeminent event venues in Valletta and the whole of Malta. The Roof Garden Terrace, without doubt the best al fresco dining and event area in Valletta, can accommodate dinner throughout the summer months and host larger stand-up events.

Discover the wine cellar with rare and exclusive vintages adorning the walls and a bespoke wine menu tailored to your preference. # Art

The Gracy's Art Collection is dedicated to serve as a catalyst for inspiration, introspection and connection with arts and culture, inviting you to embark on a captivating exploration of art and its profound connections to the world around us.

Curated by owners Gregory Nasmyth and Samantha Rowe-Beddoe, Gracy's Art Collection is dedicated to playing a pivotal role in artists' journeys. It also serves as a remarkable reflection of the owners' deep love for nature, mythology, and their connection to the history of the Club itself.

The owners' profound appreciation of the natural world is evident in the collection where vibrant flora and fauna beautifully capture the wonders of nature and the artworks explore the stories of gods, goddesses, and legendary figures, delving into the realms of Greek mythology and Maltese history.
